

MICHAEL BURNS, R.A., NCARB

Principal Architect

Registration

Registered Architect

New Jersey O-07838 (1980)

New York O18001-1 (1986)

Maryland 8531 (1990)

Missouri A-5130 (1985)

Pennsylvania O10116-B (1986)

Delaware 5543 (1991)

Maine 2524 (1999)

Florida AR97786 (2015)

NCARB Certificate No. 26513

Professional Experience

Michael Burns, Architects – Principal Architect (1996-Present)

Michael Burns, AIA – Principal Architect (1983-1995)

Education

Drexel University, Nesbitt College of Design Arts

Mercer County Community College, School of Architecture

Memberships & Organizations

Chairman to Historic Preservation Commission, City of Lambertville (2003-2007)

City Architect – City of Lambertville (2006-2019)

Princeton Montessori Society – Trustee Emeritus

Mercer County Community College Advisory Committee on Architecture

National Trust for Historic Preservation

Building Officials and Code Administrators International

Teaching Experience

Drexel University (1993 to Present)

Visiting Critic - Architecture

Drexel University (1993 to 2015)

Adjunct Professor of Architecture, Thesis Advisor, Visiting Critic

Drexel University (2015 to Present)

Professor Emeritus Department of Architecture and Urbanism

New Jersey Institute of Technology (1992 to 1996)

Adjunct Professor of Architecture, Visiting Critic

Mercer County Community College (1983 to Present)

Adjunct Professor of Architecture, Visiting Critic, Guest Lecturer

Temple University (1985 to Present)

Visiting Critic

Academic & Professional Honors

New Jersey Institute of Technology

Excellence in Teaching Award

New Jersey Society of Architects of Merit for Completed Projects

St. Luke's Elderly Housing Plan

Romo Books

AIA New Jersey's Aware of Merit for Proposed Project

Hazell Center, NJIT

New Jersey Society of Architects Excellence in Architecture 'People's Choice Award'

Romo Books

Princeton Montessori School

Somerset County Land Development & Planning Award

St. Luke's Elderly Housing Plan

New Offices, Applied Wastewater Technology

Romo Books

Montgomery Township Senior Citizens Center

Conversion of Historic Ingersoll Road House into Cultural Arts Center

New Jersey Monthly Magazine, Design of the Year Award

Romo Books

American Planning Association Outstanding Adaptable Reuse

Redevelopment of 264 Nassau Street

Borough of Princeton Preservation Award

17 Witherspoon Street

Urban House Competition, Columbus, Ohio

Honorable Mention

Trenton Housing Competition

Second Place Award

Hunterdon County 2010 Planning and Design Awards

Hermia Lechner Award Finalist - Friends of Ely Park for "Ely Memorial Park Plan"

Commercial/Public Award Finalist - Hart Venture Group, LLC for "45 Grand"

Princeton Montessori School Award

"Artistic Talent on School Design" for his work on the design of additions to the school which were completed in 2011

Lambertville - New Hope Ambulance & Rescue Squad Award 2013

Business Person of the Year to recognize outstanding support and service to the Lambertville-New Hope Ambulance & Rescue Squad